WELCOME!

Welcome to Van Dyke Zinnias @ the Lake Cottages! In 1996, our family opened our first web store where we remained for 13 years at Redbud Farms. The Farm Store was our first online flower & seed shop! Today, we have four other websites dedicated to Nature and supporting water purification products:

The years have passed quickly! Today we are pleased to include mineral-rich water purification products for animals and plants or cut flowers. Our emphasis now shifts from farm to cottage gardening, pet care, and education and advocacy for precious WATER!!

Our 2013 product catalog will be available for download in September 2012! Our prices haven't changed in 15 years. The quality is still second to none. And the people you've come to know over the years are still as friendly and knowledgeable as ever.

Flower Dew Drops - Buy 1 Get 1 Free Sale

100% natural solution rich in minerals formulated to improve general plant health, translating to luxuriant leaves, stems, branches, roots and flowers. This mineral extract reduces instances of plant disease, water cloudiness in cut flower vases, and limp or weak plants when used as directed.

Do you bring your cut flowers indoors for enjoyment? Flower Dew Drops will extend the life of the flowers in your vase by one to three weeks, depending on the plant variety.

Viktor Schaubberger 1885 - 1958

The True Story of Viktor Schaubberger

Healing water in its natural state. Clean, clear water.

Viktor Schaubberger was in the 1800's a fourth generation forester in Austria, from a family of aristocratic means. He loved Nature and the Forest deeply, reverently. His entire life was spent playing in, working with, and learning from Nature. His reverence for the forests and streams and understanding of Nature's balanced ways to regulate life on Earth pushed him to devote his entire life to learning about and teaching others how it SHOULD be done.

The Trout by Viktor Schaubberger

The Trout by Viktor Schaubberger

ABOUT THOSE HIGHER VIBRATIONS ... There are parts of ourselves that can easily ascend into the higher vibrational rate necessary for the journey home. However, there are pockets within us that need help to make the transition. These pockets, situated in our physical and subtle bodies, are the places where we store our mental distress, emotional pain and ego illusions, all composed of erroneous self-judgments. These areas of imbalance vibrate slowly in an unhealthy, weakened state, promoting disease and further imbalance. If we decide we want to let go of our low-vibrational ego illusions and the resulting disease and disharmony, Flower Essences, with their specific models of highly evolved vibration, offer wonderful vibrational role models for healing.

It is important to note that Flower Essences model an inclusive love of our whole self, not a paring away of all that the ego might see as negative. Flower Essences reveal the goodness and light that always was our identity; they do not transform us into something brand new. You might say that Flower Essences are vibrational mirrors, reminding us of what we have long forgotten about ourselves--our complete Divinity.
